2007
COVENANT CHRISTIAN

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the research and the objectives of the study. It then proceeds to a literature review, followed by a description of the methodology used. The results of the study are presented in the next section, followed by a discussion of the findings and their implications. The paper concludes with a summary of the main points and suggestions for further research.

The research was conducted in a systematic and rigorous manner, following the principles of good research practice. The data collected was analyzed using appropriate statistical methods, and the results were presented in a clear and concise manner. The findings of the study are discussed in detail, and their implications for practice and policy are explored. The paper concludes with a summary of the main points and suggestions for further research.

Camp Manitouqua God's Spirit Changing Lives & RETREAT CENTER MANITOQUA MINISTRIES

Camp Manitouqua (above) was the place for work for the first few days of the week.

One group of students (right) held a puppet show for the kids at Elim.

At Elim (left) the main joy was interacting with the children there.

An important job (below left) was to pick up trash and other stuff laying around.

The result of a day of hard work is shown below with the proud workers.

Everyone (above) had fun with the parachute at Elim.

One group (left) moved picnic tables and raked some leaves at Camp Manitouqua.

Sophomore Service Week

Two girls (right) were taken by surprise when they were painting.

The sign (below) tells an important thing to remember as you leave the camp.

Devotions (above) were held with the class all gathered in one area.

One of the groups (right) worked on leveling sand so bricks could be laid there.

Another group (left) worked on removing tree branches and logs from the area.

After working the whole week, the everyone (below right) played a mixer game/lesson involving stereotypes.

A group (above) helped clean out a house in Grand Rapids.

Heavy logs (left) had to be loaded onto the back of the truck by one group.

Junior Service Week

One group of students (right) spent time installing drywall at a home.

Free time (below) was spent with surprisingly energetic students after working hard earlier in the day.

The mountains and coal mines (above) provided amazing views and an interesting tour.

Painting was one of the jobs assigned during the week in Inez.

Painting the ceiling in one of the homes (left) was one of the new skills acquired by the volunteers.

The class (above) showed up at school to leave for the week.

The fireside devotions (left) was a great time of song and slightly crazy campfire antics.

Senior Service Week

After climbing a mountain, the seniors (right) hung out around a cross.

One group (below) did a lot of shoveling during the day.

Col 2: 2-3 My purpose is that they may be encourages in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, in whom are hidden wisdom and knowledge.

The seniors (left) all pitched in to help move supplies from the back of a truck.

Michelle Lagastee (below left) enjoyed spending time with the many children in the area..

The seniors (below right) all took the time to hike up a mountain.

John Van Schepen and Caitin McKenna (above) both played the guitar for praise and worship meetings.

Lauren Ridder and Jenna Bruck (left) spent time working on this wall.
